

Jane Mansbridge

Jane Mansbridge

John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University

"The Case for Less Accountability"

Friday, April 21, 2005

3:30 p.m.

Derby Hall

Room 1039

Jane J. Mansbridge, Adams Professor of Political Leadership and Democratic Values at Harvard, is the author of Beyond Adversary Democracy and Why We Lost the ERA (corecipient of the American Political Science Association's Kammerer Award in 1987, and the Schuck Award in 1988); editor of Beyond Self-Interest; coeditor, with Susan Moller Okin, of Feminism; and coeditor, with Aldon Morris, of Oppositional Consciousness. Mansbridge's current research includes work on feminism, representation, trust, coercion, democratic deliberation, and the public understanding of collective action problems.